Following the proposal by East Lindsey District Council to introduce 3 wheelie bins for each household during 2006, they have approached the Parish Council with regard to siting recycling facilities for glass and clothing in the village since they do not want the household bins used for this purpose.

The Parish Council considered this but were concerned that the only practical place to put such a recycling facility is in the village centre next to the bus shelter. Such a facility comprising 5 bins with framework and signage would not only detract from this picturesque part of the village, but also gave cause for concern about broken glass being present in an area used by children for school buses.

Bearing in mind there are already recycling facilities in Hainton and East Barkwith as well as Market Rasen, Louth etc., and people are well used to taking glass for recycling already, the Parish Council decided not to proceed with such a recycling point at this time.

If there is anybody who is unable to reach any of the other recycling points, then please contact any Parish Councillor or Ken & Pam Webb [313711] and we will arrange for collection and taking them to a site.

Special points of interest:

- Grave situation arising
- Not enough cooker spoils the broth
- Dancing in the Hall
- Village will not be walking on glass
- Pluses and minuses for Community Hall money
- Book worms get a chance for cash

South Willingham needs you !!

We are looking for a volunteer to take on the role of Parish Clerk.

The Parish Council meets approximately 6 times per year and the work involves an average of no more than one hour per week

The role can be very interesting. Besides preparing and issuing the agenda, attending the meeting and producing the minutes, the Parish Clerk also produces the budget and attends to any financial matters and financial returns. It is also the focal point for all contacts with East Lindsey District Council, Lincolnshire County Council and other organisations. You get to know everything that is going on!!

The Enclosure of South Willingham: 1769 – 1770

(Part 3 of 3)

The Result of Enclosure

Six public roads were laid out each being 60 feet wide between hedges; three private roads each of 30 feet width gave access to newly-awarded lands. Four new drains were dug to improve the drainage and the future crop yields.

Several exchanges of land are recorded in the Award.

G.F.Heneage was awarded 8 acres and 19 perches in Low Field, worth £138 4s. 0d., this being one-third part of the Dean and Chapter's enclosure expenses together with their hedging and fencing costs.

William Hildyard of Great Grimsby paid to the commissioners the sum of £57 5s. 11d., being one-third of the enclosure costs of the Dean and Chapter, and also £80 18s. 1d., being one-third of their hedging and fencing costs. Hildyard was awarded 8 acres and 19 perches in Low Field. A plot of just over 32 acres awarded to Heneage and another of nearly 39 acres awarded to the Dean and Chapter (both plots lying in the Holmes and Ings), were intended by Heneage to be occupied together for use as a cow pasture by his farmer-tenants in the parish; the division between these plots was to be marked by three or more boundary stones marked 'H' on the east and 'DC' on the west. The cost of this enclosure (excluding hedging and fencing) amounted to £1005. This sum was ordered to be paid to William Hillyard, the commissioners' agent, at Great Grimsby by June 1st 1770. These costs were apportioned thus:

To be paid by G F Heneage.....£775 11s. 7d.

G F Heneage as lessee to the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln..... £171 17s. 10. 1/2d

Mr John Scott (lessee of Trinity College)£34 11s. 8d.

The Duke of Ancaster£22 18s. 10. 1/2d.

He's here at last

Two events at the Community Hall took place before Christmas. The Quiz Night in November was a Fish and Chip sandwich. Food for the stomach and for the mind was a good deal. In December our now traditional Christmas Fayre was held, attended by Father Christmas who distributed goodies to the children. The two evenings made £180 and £190 respectively.

In January a new departure for the Hall was a Burns Supper, a bit early but a good idea for aye tha'. A Scotsman (Paul Ferguson) gave the Address to the Haggis but the rest of the time we had to make do with Englishmen and women. Paul Fuller gave the Toast to the Immortal Memory, Roy Sylvester the Toast to the Lassies and Alison Gough responded for the Lassies. Paul Ferguson used real Scot's language (i.e. most of us could only understand half of it) but the English expressed the right sentiments and Rabbie was duly honoured. As the Scot's spirit in both senses got going, the celebrators danced the Gay Gordons – the first time we have seen dancing in the Hall for many a day.

The Haggis being "piped" in for the Burns Supper

The food at the Burns Supper, prepared by Glynis Peterson and Anne Crookes was excellent but we were let down again by the ancient cooker. So although we were applying to Lloyds TSB Foundation for help with the kitchen, the Community Hall Committee deecided to get a new cooker to take us through the Chinese New Year (17th February) and the St Patrick's Night (17th March). We have now bought the new cooker and it should be installed in time A Toast to Hot Food and less frustration for the Cooks.

Martin Doughty has been in hospital again for an operation on his stomach. It took some time to come right but we hope he is on the mend now.

At the Parish Council meeting on 16th January, the Council set the precept for the 2006/7 financial year at £350. The average annual precept in the previous 3 years was £383.

We are pleased that Ernie Cosgrove is now home from hospital and beginning to get about, though he still needs some care.

South Willingham News

We are coming to the end of our third year of publication of this News(letter). Though far from perfect, it has been welcomed by many for filling a gap in the communication process in the village.

It has been a successful joint project of both the Parish Council and the Community Hall. Martin Doughty, Ken Webb and Paul Fuller formed the Management Committee with regular contributions to discussion by Pam Webb and publication and printing from Diana Doughty of Skills Centre (UK) Ltd. We have always felt that, though representing the whole village, this was too narrow a group. However, we wanted to get it started and make it sustainable.

Now we are looking for others who might join us. Have you ever fancied yourself as a journalist/writer? Do you take photos of the village which are better than the amateur efforts to date? Could you try your hand at editing. If you are interested

The Parish Council and the Community Hall are jointly producing this paper and through the Management Committee are publishing it quarterly. As well as official news and information about the Hall, they would like stories from around the village. As they are also reporters, sub-editors, publishers and first copy printers, they hope village people will come forward with ideas and stories themselves. Their thanks to Skills Centre (UK) Ltd for the printing.

Community Hall news

We have had two disappointments over the Christmas period. First we failed to win any of the prizes in the WREN Challenge – winning that would have enabled us to complete the Hall development in one go. But we have heard in the last few weeks that Lloyds TSB Foundation was not going to help us either – we thought we were home and dry on that one.

It is fairly obvious now that we are unlikely to get the full amount, so we intend to develop the Hall in several phases: two, three or four. Just what is in each Phase depends on what money is available and what the Architect says can be done at a time. The uncertainty is because the situation varies from month to month - the Lottery has just come back again with a possibility for Village Halls!

So we are meeting the Architect later this month to talk over the options. Once that meeting has happened we will be applying for two grants next month and the first stage of another this month as well as two smaller grants as soon as possible.

We have bought a cooker to replace the defunct one and it should be in operation for the Chinese New Year evening.

Having a good time at the Burn's Supper
